

SCREENINGS

Make a Difference

Lifetime risk of cancer diagnosis (based on 2016 – 2018 data):

Breast cancer

About 12.9 percent of women

Colorectal cancer

About 4.1 percent of adults

Cervical cancer

About 0.6 percent of women

Cancer death rates dropped by 31

percent between 1991 and 2018.

This amounts to 3.1 million lives saved through reduced smoking and improved detection and treatment.

About 39 percent of adults will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetimes.

As of 2019, there were an estimated million

cancer survivors in the United States.

Learn more in the Live Healthy section of www.SouthCarolinaBlues.com.

South Carolina